Serial No.

From

The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident.

753-41/W dated 24th October Requesting promulgation of Chrome Compounds Control order in Mysore.

The Residency have forwarded copies of the Chrome Control order and request that a similar order may be made in Mysore.

The order Prohibits use of Chrome Compounds in the textile industry except for goods ordered by the Govt. In the draft proposed the exception is given both in respect of both the Govt of India and Our Govt as suggested by the Residency.

Licenses and application for licences may be dealt with perhaps in the Dev. Dept. This suggestion in the draft is for Consideration. The Residency suggest that the Director General of Supply might be Consulted before licences are issued.

It is requested that information may be made available to the Director General of Supply Where wanted.

A Press note on the lines of the one sent is also put up.

The Admn. Branch may also perhaps be Consulted.

Attention is invited to the Chrome Compounds Control Order, 1941, which is published in a Gazette of India Extraordinary of the 9th October 1941. The Supply of chrome compounds (in which for the purposes of the Order are included potassium bichromate sodium bichromate, and chrome alum) is becoming increasingly difficult and the Government of India have been obliged to impose certain restrictions upon the use and disposal of chrome compounds whether imported or manufactured in India.

Approximately 90 per cent of present consumption takes place in the Textiles Industry; the balance is consumed by a number of important industries e.g in the manufacture of matches, paints, and medicines, and in tanning. In the Textiles Industry the Order prohibits the use of chrome compounds except in the manufacture of goods to the orders of the Central Government. In other industries there is no prohibition on use, but the Order lays down that no person shall sell or otherwise dispose of chrome compounds except on presentation by the purchaser or other recipient of a license in the prescribed form. This means that all persons wishing to acquire chrome componds must apply for licenses. If the chrome compounds are needed for use in a Textiles Industry, licenses will be given only for the quantities needed for the execution of the orders of the Central Government. If the Chrome compounds are needed for use in other industries, licenses will be given freely up to the level of normal average consumption.

Applications for licenses should be sent

(a) if the chrome compounds are for use in a Textiles Industry, to the Director of Cotton Textiles, Ballard Estate, Bombay; and

(b) if the chrome compounds are needed for other uses, to the Director General of Supply, Chemicals Directorate, Supply Department, New Delhi.

Application forms will be available free of cost at the following offices :

(i) Director General of Supply, License Section, New Delhi;

(ii) Director of Cotton Textiles, Ballard Estate, Bombay;

(iii) Controller of Supplies, Bombay/Calcutta/ Madras/Karachi/Lahore/Cawnpore.

~~Draft advertisement~~.

Attention is invited to the Chrome Compounds Control Order, 1941, which is published in a Gazette of India Extraordinary of the 9th October 1941. The Supply of chrome compounds (in which for the purposes of the Order are included potassium bichromate sodium bichromate, and chrome alum) is becoming increasingly difficult and the Government of India have been obliged to impose certain restrictions upon the use and disposal of chrome compounds whether imported or manufactured in India.

Approximately 90 per cent of present consumption takes place in the Textiles Industry; the balance is consumed by a number of important industries e.g in the manufacture of matches, paints, and medicines, and in tanning. In the Textiles Industry the Order prohibits the use of chrome compounds except in the manufacture of goods to the orders of the Central Government. In other industries there is no prohibition on use, but the Order lays down that no person shall sell or otherwise dispose of chrome compounds except on presentation by the purchaser or other recipient of a license in the prescribed form. This means that all persons wishing to acquire chrome componds must apply for licenses. If the chrome compounds are needed for use in a Textiles Industry, licenses will be given only for the quantities needed for the execution of the orders of the Central Government. If the Chrome compounds are needed for use in other industries, licenses will be given freely up to the level of normal average consumption.

Applications for licenses should be sent

(a) if the chrome compounds are for use in the Textiles Industry, to the Director of Cotton Textiles, Ballard Estate, Bombay; and

(b) if the chrome compounds are needed for other uses, to the Director General of Supply, Chemicals Directorate, Supply Department, New Delhi.

Application forms will be available free of cost at the following offices :-

(i) Director General of Supply, License Section, New Delhi;

(ii) Director of Cotton Textiles, Ballard Estate, Bombay;

(iii) Controller of Supplies, Bombay/Calcutta/Madras/Karachi/Lahore/Cawnpore.

PRESS NOTE

Attention is invited to the Chrome Compounds Control Order, 1941, which is published in the Mysore Gazette, Part IV, dated 6th November 1941. The supply of chrome compounds (in which for the purposes of the order are included potassium bichromate, sodium bichromate and chrome alum) is becoming increasingly difficult and the Government of India have been obliged to impose certain restrictions upon the use and disposal of chrome compounds whether imported or manufactured in India. It has been considered necessary to impose similar restrictions in Mysore also.

Approximately 90 per cent of present consumption takes place in the Textiles Industry; the balance is consumed by a number of important industries, e.g., in the manufacture of matches, paints and medicines, and in tanning. In the Textiles Industry, the order prohibits the use of chrome compounds except in the manufacture of goods to the order of the Government or the Central Government of India. In other industries there is no prohibition on use, but the order lays down that no person shall sell or otherwise dispose of chrome compounds except on presentation by the purchaser or other recipient of a license in the prescribed form. This means that all persons wishing to acquire chrome compounds must apply for licenses. If the chrome compounds are needed for use in a Textiles Industry, licenses will be given only for the quantities needed for the execution of the Orders of the Government or the Central Government. If the chrome compounds are needed for use in other industries, licenses will be given freely up to the level of normal average consumption.

Applications for licenses should be sent to the Director of Industries and Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore.

Application forms will be available, free of cost, at the Office of the Secretary to Government, Development Department, Public Offices, Bangalore.
